Our 2016 Rose Float

The 2016 Odd Fellows and Rebekahs Rose Parade Float, entitled "The Tree of Life's Adventure," pays homage to the adventures, memorable events and achievements of families and family life. Our float is striving to express the concept that "We seek to elevate the character of mankind" and recognize what they have done; and how they live and their accomplishments.

See related story on Page 1.

Happy Thanksgiving!

L.J. Jones

Here's a little history on the man behind the scholarship

L. J. Jones was initiated into Gibson Odd Fellow Lodge #494 located in Iowa. He was a member there from February 26, 1907 through June 4, 1909. He became Past Grand of that lodge on December 31, 1907.

L. J. transferred to Covenant Odd Fellow Lodge #259 located in Nebraska on June 24, 1909 and continued his membership until November 6, 1913.

L. J. transferred to Prosperity Lodge #301 located in Wenatchee, Washington, on November 16, 1913 and continued his membership there until January 11, 1918.

L. J. transferred to Nagonako Lodge #250 in Okanogan Washington and was a member of that lodge from January 24, 1918 until his passing on Oct. 24, 1951.

L. J. was elected as Grand Secretary in 1935 and served in that position until his death in 1951.

The Grand Lodge of Washington passed by Resolution at the 1952 Grand Session, to name the Scholarship Fund in memory of L. J. Jones for his untiring effort and assertion of the Self Sustaining Scholarship Fund and at that same time set up a Grand Lodge Fund for the L. J. Jones Scholarship.

Our leaders gather together

Our Rose Parade Float can grow like an oak tree

At the August, 2015 Session of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, our Odd Fellows-Rebekahs Rose Float was reinstated as a recognized project on behalf of our Order and in Texas, the float was given a special seed to help it grow — an Acorn!

The float committee has planted this seed. An oak tree can take 50 years to flower and begin producing acorns. Its maturity depends on the environment and climate, but it may live more than 600 years. We need to provide water and the best environment possible for our "float tree" to grow and prosper — and you can help.

Please consider joining us her in warm, sunny Southern California during the last week in December, 2015 to help decorate our float. On January 1, 2016, you can attend the Tournament of Roses Parade and the Rose Bowl football game. It will be the experience of a lifetime! If you can't attend in person, please support our "float tree" with a donation.

Every donation, large or small, works toward the goal of a healthy tree. For example, with annual total support of just $2,000 from each of our IOOF Jurisdictions, our "float tree" would mature quickly and produce acorns in perpetuity. We appreciate your support and look forward to seeing you in December!

AGAIN, THANKS FOR A WONDERFUL RECEPTION

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

A big thank you to all who came to the reception for the five leaders of our Order. You made our day!

LAUREL DELONY

I also want to thank the Brothers and Sisters who came to the District Deputy Grand Masters (DDGM) meeting on Saturday, October 24 in Olympia. Members learned what the responsibilities are of their District Deputy Grand Masters and what I expect from each of them when they visit lodges.

LUNCH AND LEARN

Brother Joe Picanco, PGM and Grand Parliamentarian, put on another great “Lunch and Learn” session.

Brother Joe explained how important it is to do the opening and closing ceremonies of our lodges. These are age old ceremonies and should not be eliminated or shortened when you open or close your lodge. Opening and closing of a lodge should only take minutes to accomplish, so please don’t skip them. If we don’t practice these ceremonies we’ll lose them and not be able to teach newer members who do want to learn the correct way.

No questions are too little or stupid at a “Lunch and Learn.” Everyone who asked questions received answers. Brothers and Sisters, I thank you for believing and being dedicated to our Order and wanting to learn.

NORTHWEST ASSOCIATION MEETING

The Northwest Odd Fellows and Rebekahs will meet Friday, Saturday and Sunday, November 6, 7 and 8. I hope to see many of you in Yakima. This is a great opportunity to reacquaint with old friends and make new ones. This is also a good opportunity to share ideas from other jurisdictions.

Also, kudos go out to our Deputy Grand Master Duard Fyffe who will be installed as our new Department Commander of the Pacific Northwest Council. Congratulations, Brother Duard!

OFF TO TEXAS

On the weekend of November 14, Dave and I will be winging our way to the state of Texas for the Sovereign Grand Master’s Testimonial. Dave will be installed as the Sovereign Grand Guardian that weekend. Congratulations, Brother Dave.

ELECTION TIME

Your lodges should be working towards the election of new officers during your first meeting in November. Congratulations to the newly-elected officers. Thank you for stepping up and volunteering to be a leader.

Remember, Noble Grand elects: You need to make sure and appoint your officers for 2016 term. Please don’t use the excuse that they never show. Do your appointments and at your meetings if the person you appointed doesn’t show, select another member present to fill that office for the evening.

CHALLENGE

Okay, here is your challenge for this month. I would like you to go out into your communities and volunteer at a food bank, clothing bank, soup kitchen, or someplace that helps others. Wear your Odd Fellow shirt or something that distinguishes you as a member of the IOOF. Remember that just because you may not be able to do physical work, you can still go and give a smile and moral support. Please contact me and let me know of your success.

That’s it for this month. I wish for you all a very happy Thanksgiving.

News from the Capital City

Olympia IOOF Lodge #1 Ruth Rebekah Lodge #17

Several Brothers cut, split and stacked firewood for a Brother who has wrenched his back. This is Odd Fellowship!

Nominations were held during the first meeting in October. The second round of nominations will be held in November. The nominations are for Noble Grand, Treasurer, Secretary and Financial Secretary. Come out and vote.

The Merit Award Committee, chaired by Rick Garcia, is accepting letters of recommendation for the “Odd Fellow of the Year” award. He or she has been an outstanding member of our Order.

The Christmas Party Committee has started to plan our annual party. I do not know the date, but it will be published in the next Washington OddFellow newspaper.

FYI — If you camp in your Odd Fellow Park, please pay. This is your park and it takes money to operate it.

Alpha Encampment #1 welcomes Kelly Hughes and Kathi Picanco as new Patriarchs.

Dues are due by December 31. Dues are still $45.

what you can do in a Junior Odd Fellow Lodge or Theta Rho Girls' Club

Join together with other boys and girls. Be trained in the art of democratic living. Learn more about the world you live in. Plan and participate in interesting activities. Express yourself and gain poise and self confidence. Go places. Plan for the future and your career. Share and serve with others. Assume responsibilities as an officer in a local lodge or club.

Become involved in your community and its needs. Promote understanding and cooperation. You may undertake helpful projects.

Take part in regular meetings. Meet in a lodge or club room. Learn to conduct meetings. Learn to perform ceremonies which dramatically tell a story and show new members the aims and objects of our organization. Preside or participate in business sessions where you take part in discussions, decisions and planning. Enjoy games, social events and special occasions. Associate with Odd Fellow and Rebekah lodges. Meet with Junior Odd Fellows or Theta Rho Girls in local, state, provincial or national levels.

Boys and Girls, 10-18 years of age, may become members of a Junior Odd Fellow Lodge or Theta Rho Girls’ Club. Jurisdictions may allow for those 8 and 9 years of age to join. A nominal fee is paid at the time of admission and annual dues help pay for the youth group expenses. Money raising projects help finance special events. At meetings and all activities an adult serves as an Advisor.

to celebrate 90 years!

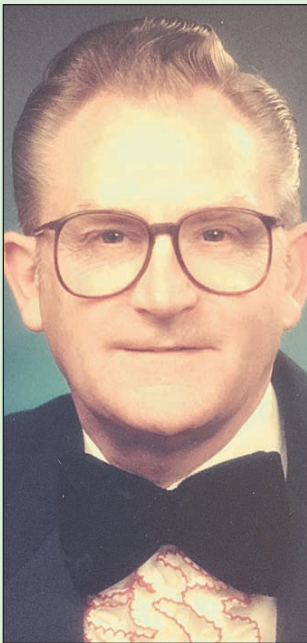

Past Grand Master/Past Grand Patriarch Don Hepp is turing 90!

The family of Past Grand Master/Past Grand Patriarch, Don Hepp, along with Olympia IOOF Lodge #1, would like to invite you to a birthday celebration for Don. He is turning 90 and we would be honored if you would join us in wishing him a wonderful birthday.

The party will take place on Saturday December 5 at the Olympia Odd Fellow Lodge, 405 S. Columbia St. This event will be an open house from 1 p.m. to 3 p.m., so please stop by and give Don your best wishes.

No gifts please, but cards and stories/memories about Don are appreciated.

See you on December 5.

South Tacoma Rebekahs
Sometimes it takes a clown to run a sale!!

Greetings Sisters and Brothers,

Our crazy, wonderful, Treasurer Joan Lundy dressed up as a clown and stood out front of our hall blowing a whistle and motioning cars to stop and come on in to our rummage sale we held recently. We made well over $600. Thank you to all who donated to the rummage sale, especially to Sister Joanne who practically donated her whole house.

We also sold hot dogs, sodas and some baked goods. The hall looked like it had been hit with a tornado, but by the end of Sunday everything was boxed up and St. Vincent De Paul came and collected the leftovers. You wouldn't have known that there had been a sale there. As a matter of fact, once everything had been boxed, Joanne, Laurel, and Noble Grand Joan Lundy was the "Clown" who herded in the buyers at South Tacoma's rummage sale.

Ramona set up the hall for the District Meeting held on Saturday, October 17.

We had a very informative meeting with our President Sister Kathi Picanco of Ruth Rebekah Lodge #17. Everyone enjoyed potluck at lunchtime. The new President for 2016 is Sister Joanne Balmert and she is coming up with some great ideas.

Welcome to our newest member, Linda Young. She is a former Theta Rho Girl and is the daughter of late Rebekah Sister Ida Babbitt. We are looking forward to Linda being part of our Rebekah Lodge.

Happy Thanksgiving to all!

Joe Picanco. I am always ready for some learning and reminders about the Rebekah Degree.

We were all hoping for a good turn out for this meeting, but we are always sorry for the ones who cannot attend. However, we always make the most of it. We will have pictures for show later.

TIME FOR GIVING THANKS

Brothers and Sisters,

The harvest is in and now it is time for giving thanks. When we sit down for a Thanksgiving dinner this year with family and friends, let us remember to be thankful for our many blessings. Give a thankful prayer to and for those who are still risking their lives to protect us and our freedoms, and, as well, a prayer for those less fortunate and disadvantage that they may also be blessed and relieved.

IN THE LODGE ROOM

November is the month when lodges elect officers for the 2016 year. Congratulations to all those officers-elect as you plan for the work in the new year ahead of you. To those lodges that may need a Dispensation to install a non-qualified member, only the Grand Master can grant one for the office of Noble Grand or Vice-Grand prior to installation. Refer to the Washington Digest Chapter 3, Section 3.10.5 Qualifications for Noble Grand or Vice Grand by Service, found on page 50.

ANNUAL REPORTS

The Annual Report form packages were mailed to all Odd Fellow Lodges in October. If you are an officer with a part to complete, please start now gathering and compiling the necessary information needed for completing this report. When the report forms are received and you start your work, please use black ink and make you entries legible. Do not alter the "Cash on Hand Last Report" amount appearing on Line 1.

For those lodges with Invested Funds from Sale of Buildings, report this on Line 40. Do not include this amount on Line 39. Remember to use you Lodge Seal on those forms requiring it.

If there is anything confusing or you are in doubt as to how to complete your forms, please call the Grand Lodge Office at 1-800-345-1766 for assistance.

SOVEREIGN GRAND LODGE SUPPLY CATALOGS

Should your lodge desire to order any Lodge Supplies, you will find on our website, www.ioofwa.org, on the opening page at the bottom, the Sovereign Grand Lodge Supply Catalog. You will also find and Grand Lodge Order Form pdf. Print the form, and mail to Grand Lodge of Washington, PO Box 377, Buckley, WA 98321-0377. Please do not wait until the last minute for Past Nobel Grand Jewels.

In Walla Walla

Narcissa Rebekahs #2

We are certainly enjoying the beautiful autumn weather here in Walla Walla. The leaves are turning beautiful colors and everyone seems to have a bit more bounce to their walk. We are getting back in to the swing of things after having two months dark. We are all preparing for the upcoming District Meeting and our Homecoming Dinner.

Barbara Lechner, Marthann Hall, Rose Ringhoffer, and Barbara & Ted Tvz travelled to Spokane in August to help Polly Komarek celebrate her 90th. birthday. There was a big party at a local venue, with a lovely dinner and live music. Polly and Al danced every dance and enjoyed visiting with their large extended families. A great time was had by all.

We believe that there is no greater gift that one person can give to another than the gift of education. Every year we have been blessed to be able to award scholarships to Walla Walla Community College students. This year we are awarding four $250 scholarships. The college will pick the students to receive the money.

We had some out-of-town visitors at our October 6 meeting. They were Judith Maxell from Gillespie Illinois and Polly Komarek, PNG from Spokane Valley. Judith is the sister-in-law of our Noble Grand, Patty Newell. It was a great pleasure to visit with these ladies. Polly was an active member here until she moved and we miss her dearly.

Goodbye for now from Walla Walla. Enjoy the autumn.

Hello from Trinity.

Our fall meeting was held on Thursday, September 24 with Delia McNelly and Erma Strom serving a delicious casserole.

Cookie Music brought her flowers for show that were used in arrangements at the Southwest Washington Fair. She took in more blue ribbons this year. It was a job well done.

The schedule was discussed for our coffee stop at the rest area on Tuesday, October 6. We did okay. There were mostly truckers, but they are happy to see us. They are always ready for a cup of coffee and a friendly chat.

Our District #18 Meeting was held in Longview on Saturday, October 10. President Cookie Music was busy with last minute preparations. Longview Rebekah Lodge #305 hosted the potato bar.

Chaplain Alberta Luurs put together a memorial service for our dearly beloved Sisters who passed away since our last meeting.

NOVEMBER ALREADY. . .

As I thought of what to write about and realized oh my gosh, it's November. So here is a question for you. . . what are you thankful for? What has your lodge done that the community is thankful for? Here is what I came up with for that question:

BARBARA NELSON

I am thankful for my husband John who keeps me grounded when I clearly take on too much. That encourages me when I need it and tells me it is okay to say no now and then.

My kids that tell me they are proud of all I do. My mom clearly thinks I take on too much, but is always ready to help out where she can. I am thankful that my lodge is willing to go the extra to help whenever they can.

VISITING AND LEARNING

As I have done a lot of visiting over the past two months, I have learned many things about our Order, and about its members. The one things that I seem to get at each lodge is that we all have one thing in common: We want to do things to improve the community around us and help others. So I hope that as you think about the coming holidays, you can take a look around your local community and see what your lodge can do to help. Is it cleaning a road? Is it helping a family? Is it visiting a nursing home and chatting with the residents? No matter what your lodge decides it can do to help, keep in mind that people remember the little things you do, not just the big things. I remember just the cup of coffee with a friend to listen, when she needed a ear to bend. So be thankful for family, your lodge family and the little things that make you smile.

LET'S MAKE THE SEASON BRIGHTER

Remember, the holiday is sometimes lonely for others, so invite a potential new member for a social meeting and brighten a day. Or have a cookie exchange or invite others in to decorate Christmas cookies. Let's make this season a little brighter for others and ourselves.

FEEL FREE TO CONTACT ME

As always, if you have questions or concerns or need a listening ear, feel free to contact me. Do you have any ideas for what you would like to read in the upcoming

From your Wardens

Has your lodge gone high tech?

The busy holiday season is upon us and many have started their Christmas shopping. I find myself doing more and more of my shopping on-line. The simplicity of sitting down whenever I have a few minutes — even if it's 3 a.m. — in the comfort of my easy chair and clicking on the link to one of my favorite stores makes shopping less stressful and more efficient.

Our world has gone high tech, and like it or not, we need to keep up, especially if we are going to appeal to younger members. Has you lodge considered starting a Facebook page. This is a great venue to post pictures and information about what is happening in your community, as well as lodge activities. You can decide whether you want an open page that allows any member to post on the site or assign one person to monitor and make the postings.

Using e-mail to notify members of upcoming projects or needs of your lodge is quick and efficient — but don't forget that not all members have accesses to the internet and some aren't comfortable using this as a way of communication. Consider organizing your lodge membership list according to those who can be reached by e-mail and those who prefer a friendly phone call.

As times change, we must be willing to make change, too. We walk a fine line as we adopt new ways to practice Odd Fellowship without undermining methods that have proven themselves over the years and are the comfort zone of some of our long-time members. Maintaining active members and recruiting new members is an ever-evolving challenge that requires each one of us be vigilant in considering the needs of our lodge and our communities.

Hopefully you are staying in contact with those non-active members, as well as talking with younger family members about the activities of your lodge. Now add some modern technology — you might ask some of those younger family members how to do this.

— In F. L. & T., Kelly Hughes & Cathy Garcia

From your 2015-16 Theta Rho President

I AM SO THANKFUL

As we're coming up to Thanksgiving, I want everyone to stop and think about all the beautiful things you are thankful for in your life — whether it's your family, friends, or even your mailman. Life is a precious thing. I, myself, am thankful for all the wonderful people in my life — my parents, family, friends, boyfriend, fellow Theta Rho Girls, and everyone else in the Order I have grown and learned with.

Odd Fellowship is a powerful thing and should not be taken for granted. As much as the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs support we youth, we need to show our support, as well. Show them that we are thankful for all the things they do for us. If your sponsoring lodge is holding a sale or dinner, offer to help. Even consider visiting members who can't make it to their meetings. This is the season to be thankful and show people how much we care for them.

FAITH GHGRAMM

HOW ABOUT VISITING YOUR REBEKAHS?

Theta Rho Girls, try to visit at least one Rebekah meeting this month or next to show your appreciation. Maybe bring cookies? One day, hopefully, we'll grow up and become Rebekahs and/or Odd Fellows, too! Same with the Rebekahs and Odd Fellows. You're only as old as you make yourself to be. You all are still part of the youth.

Even after November, don't forget to be thankful. You only have one life, don't live it in negativity :)

The days are getting cooler and shorter. Fall is definitely here.

In October we had a swim party and our Halloween party, too. They were both fun times. We invited friends in hopes of gaining some new members. We also sent Halloween cards with notes to our two Veteran pen pals.

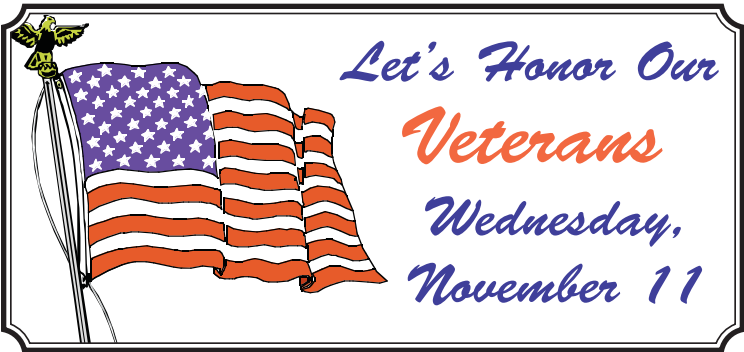

This month we celebrate Veterans' Day and Thanksgiving. To honor our Veterans, we made our annual donation to the Vietnam Memorial Fund. We thank our military, both past and present, for putting their lives on the line daily so that we might enjoy the freedoms we have.

In the spirit of the season of giving thanks, we made a donation to "Feed The Children" so that kids who are not as fortunate as us could have better meals.

This is the month we also do our annual turkey raffle for the Make-A-Wish Foundation. We will be doing that at our local Walmart on Saturday, November 14. We will make a report next month on how we did.

We want to wish all of you a happy Thanksgiving. Don't forget to take time to give thanks for all the many blessings that you have received this year.

THE SEASONS ARE CHANGING

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

The Month of November has arrived and the fall leaves and the weather will be changing soon. We now have an extra hour of daylight and I hope we have a mild winter ahead. You will be holding your election of Officers this month, celebrating the Thanksgiving holiday, Veterans Day and All Saints Day. I hope you all have a wonderful Thanksgiving holiday and be sure to remember those that protect our freedom.

PER CAPITA AND ASSESSMENT DUES

The Per Capita and Assessment Dues should have been received by your Lodge Secretaries by now. Please remit your payments, payable to the Rebekah Assembly of Washington, before the due date. This year the Grand Lodge passed in their Sessions, that the Paper Dues will be paid on all of your members, including your non-contributing members for The Washington OddFellow newspaper. The figures on the notices will reflect the additional members in your lodge who are non-contributing. The rest of the dues and assessments are only on your paying members.

I am sending out the Annual Reports and just as a reminder, the figures in red can't be changed. Also, please include with your Annual Report a list of your new members and their mailing addresses. We passed in the Rebekah Assembly Sessions, that any receipts or expenditures on the Annual Reports over $400 must be itemized on a separate sheet of paper. If you have any questions, call me.

Mystic Rebekahs #168 & Bremerton Friendship # 145

The good news is that the Odd Fellows have a prospective member. The not-so-good news is that this youngest Brother had his truck shot up, with a bullet grazing his neck.

Our Rebekahs keep the doctors busy. Last Spring, Noble Grand Beverly Pry had hip surgery. Our Treasurer Betty Gaiski's knee surgery was put off until November. Don, John and I have been checked and rechecked. My red blood cells have improved with the first shot, with a series of shots to follow. Beverly keeps hoping to find a car.

One year after Sister Linda's passing, our oldest Sister, Helen Walsh, passed away in the same room. Both had Alzheimer's for seven years.

The Rebekahs continue to contribute to most Odd Fellow-Rebekah projects. The projects include monthly donations to two food banks, along with support to the library, DAV for supplies for their Scouts, and "Toys for Tots." This year both lodges paid for reupholstering 54 stacking chairs for the DAV. That was nice for us, too. At the end of the year, the Rebekahs will give a generous donation to the "Christmas Bell Ringer Fund" sponsored by the Kitsap Sun. That gives us recognition, too.

The Odd Fellows helped with school clothes and supplies for children living in cars who study Spanish and English.

Don and I attended our "new" District Association Meeting in Tacoma and came home with the office of Vice President. We hope more will be in attendance next time.
