

Rebekah Assembly Warden Alberta Luurs proudly displays the award naming her "Volunteer of the Year" award for Lewis County. The award was from the L.C. Renal Alliance.

RA Warden named Volunteer of the Year

Rebekah Assembly Warden Alberta Luurs was awarded "The Lewis County Volunteer of the Year" award on Saturday, December 3. Alberta has spearheaded Bingo fund-raising events to help support her lodge and community. The award was presented by Chris Rovito, representing the L.C. Renal Alliance.

Trinity Rebekah Lodge #179 in Napavine held several Bingo fund-raising events in support of the L.C. Renal Alliance. Alberta and her Trinity Sisters have raised more than $10,000.

Each Bingo night was packed with families of all ages enjoying an evening of fun. L.C. Renal Alliance is a non-profit organization formed by Chris and Danielle Rovito after their daughter Lawsyn was diagnosed with Focal Segmental Glomerulosclerosis (FSGS). The organization aims to help other children and families affected by nephrotic syndrome, FSGS, and other kidney diseases. Learn more at:

HAPPY ST. PATRICK'S DAY

TIM MOON
Grand Master

Brothers and Sisters,

Here we are, it's March already only three more months until Grand Sessions. This has truly been a whirlwind experience, but I do love it.

I've been working diligently with the Home Board and Permanent Endowment Fund Committee, which has been enlightening. This month I will be attending Planning Board in Yakima, so next month you will see what's going on in June at our Grand Sessions.

DISTRICT DEPUTY GM MEETING

On April 8 there will be a District Deputy Grand Masters meeting at 10 a.m. at the Olympia Odd Fellows Lodge. I'd like to have all the District Deputy reports in at that time.

A great big thank you to all Lodge Secretaries who got their Year End Reports in on time. It's greatly appreciated by the Grand Secretary and myself.

NEED HELP? PLEASE ASK US

I also want to thank PGM Toby Hanson, PGM Dave Delony, and PGM/Grand Secretary Laurel Delony for their continuing assistance in helping struggling lodges. The Grand Lodge is always available to help our lodges and members. We want to see our lodges survive and be strong. If you have questions reach out to the Grand Lodge. Remember, there is no such thing as a stupid question.

VISITATION SCHEDULE

My visitation schedule this month is Rosalia #110 March 20th, Centennial #341 March 27, Samaritan #52 March 13, and Hunters # 216 March 14

Brothers and Sisters feel free to contact me by phone or text at (509) 638-6107. Please leave a message if I don't answer. You can also email me at:

WINTER ISN'T OVER

Brrrr. The ground-hog saw his shadow last month and went back in his hole so we are still having winter weather. Because of that, I had to postpone my visit to Hope Rebekah Lodge #38 in Spokane. I have rescheduled it for spring.

SOUTH TACOMA VISITATION

I had a nice visit with South Tacoma Lodge. We had a delicious dinner before the meeting and I got to see the girls from our Spunky Bluebirds Theta Rho Club which I started years ago. During the Rebekah meeting they came in and gave me a gift, a Theta Rho T-shirt. I appreciate it very much. They meet at the same time and location as the Rebekahs.

Also in February I attended my Kent Ladies Encampment meeting when Grand Matriarch Margaret Truttman made her visit.

LEGISLATION COMMITTEE AT WORK

Our Assembly Legislation Committee is now working on editing the lodge Constitution and Book of Instructions so we will have new copies of them soon.

acter, animal or surprise us!

VISITATION SCHEDULE

I have a busy schedule in March. Here's where I'll be:

- March 1, Fall City Rebekah Lodge #59.
- March 8-15, I will be in Louisiana attending their Assembly Sessions and visiting with family there.
- March 18, Planning Board meeting in Yakima.

• March 19, I will be celebrating my granddaughter Bella's first Birthday.

• March 22, Trinity Rebekah Lodge #179.

• March 28, Sunbeam Rebekah Lodge #147.

• April 6, Longview Rebekah Lodge #305.

If there are any schedule changes I will let the lodges know.

Thank you again to all of you for all the Friendship and Love you have shown me and my traveling partners. We appreciate you very much!

And remember, don't worry about what others think. Just focus on yourself and be positive. Some people are always negative, so don't let it bother you.

HAPPY ST. PATRICK'S DAY!

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

We're still waiting for Spring but I have a few little flowers pushing their heads through the dirt. I am so ready to spend more time in the gardens and enjoy the warmth of the sun shining.

ANNUAL REPORTS

In the meantime, Annual Reports are in, Officers are installed and Representatives have been elected. I'm finishing up the SGL Annual Report and thanks to your diligent attention to membership reports, I feel that I have a very accurate data base of all our members and their information. I really want to thank all the Lodge Secretaries for your continued work and the time you put into serving your Brothers and Sisters. Our Lodges would truly struggle without your attention to detail and keeping your members up to date on Assembly Activities.

EARLY SESSIONS NEWS

Your Legislative Committee has finished reviewing the Constitution of Rebekah Lodges and the Book of Instruction. They have made corrections and are recommending updates to bring these documents into correlation with the Assembly Constitution and By-Laws. These updates will be presented at Sessions in June for a vote. Your Representative will have access to these changes when the 2023 "Take Me" (Advance Reports) is published. Be sure to have her/him go over them with you to determine how your lodge will want to vote.

TIME TO ORDER SUPPLIES

This would be a good time to look through your supplies — minutes book, warrants, PNG role call book, and report register — and order anything you may need in the near future. If you aren't aware, we also have reminder notices for dues, as well as notices for "dropped for non-payment of dues." If you have a thought on something that would make your job easier and more efficient, please let me know. Maybe we can come up with something that will be helpful to all of us.

MARCH CHALLENGE

Here's a challenge to all the Secretaries for the Month of March — find a St. Patrick's Day poem, story or game and share it with your lodge during the month of March..

Have a great March and start making your plans to join us in Yakima this June. It is a wonderful time to meet Brothers and Sisters from across our state and visitors from other states as well.

YES, ANNUAL REPORTS WERE GREAT

Brothers and Sisters,

I'd like to thank all of the Secretaries from the various Odd Fellow Lodges for getting your Annual Reports in on time. I spent a lot of time on the phone with secretaries to help them get the lodge forms filled out. I appreciate you for having the courage to call me. I don't bite! We walked through the reports very easily and we balanced. Yea! To any secretary who has any questions. I am here. My email and office phone are at the end of this letter.

HEADS UP! SESSIONS ARE NEARING

Saturday, March 18 is the date of our Planning Board meeting for this year's Grand Sessions. Sessions will be held June 23-28. First is Theta Rho Assembly, then Grand Lodge and Rebekah Assembly, with the Sessions rounded out with Grand Encampment and Grand LEA. Information will be provided in April's edition of The Washington OddFellow. All registration, meal pricing, and hotel information will be listed.

To those of you who plan on going to the Theta Rho Banquet, This year's theme is "Back to Neverland." If you aren't sure what that is, go watch a Peter Pan movie. Be in costume or you'll walk the plank!

ALL BRANCH BANQUET

For those of you planning to attend the All Branch Banquet, it's a Costume Party. Come dressed in your funniest costumes.

NORTHWEST FINALLY RETURNS TO BC

The Northwest Odd Fellows and Rebekah Association meeting will be on March 24-25. This is open to anyone and it will be held in Chilliwack B.C. Canada at the Costal Hotel. You'll need either an enhanced driver's license or passport to enter Canada. Information is in this edition on page 19. It was on page 19 in the February edition as well.

'TAKE ME' INFO DUE APRIL 15

Attention all Grand Lodge Officers and Heads of Committees, your preliminary reports are do into this office no later than April 15 for the "Take Me." After that you will need to submit them on the floor at Grand Lodge. Heads of Committees, if you are requesting money make sure your budget is a separate item. Check out the Journal from 2022 if you need some help. The Finance Committee will need this information for setting the 2023 budget.

WISE WORDS FROM YOUR SECRETARY

Okay, I over did it again but I'll leave you with this: "An Odd Fellow friend is like a four leaf clover. Hard to find but lucky to have."

Tom Cox of Yakima #22 finds Sammy in February

The number of entries in our "Guess Sammy" contest keeps going up as spring is approaching.

Congratulations, Tom!

HELP FIND SAMMY AGAIN

We are continuing with our "Guess Sammy" contest again. Get your eagle eyes busy and you can win a nice wearable from the Grand Lodge of Washington. Just send your email to grandsecretarywaioof@gmail.com or call 800-345-1766. All submissions must be in the office no later than March 15 for our April, 2023 edition. Late entries will be tossed. One chance per contest only!

The winner will be drawn from the pool of correct entries.

HAPPY ST. PATRICK'S DAY!

Greetings Patriarchs,

Congratulations to all our newly-elected officers. In April you'll be installed and begin providing direction to your lodges. Hopefully you have a couple of ideas on what it is you wish to accomplish in your year. And more importantly, how you wish to execute those ideas. Engage and ask others around you to help accomplish those ideas.

YOU CAN KICK IT UP A NOTCH

Also, as you go about your planning, look at how you can spice up your meetings. You will find if you provide structure and discipline to your meetings, you find meetings to be more constructive.

Encourage members to prepare and present programs/topics that are interesting to your lodge members. The discussion does not always have to be a program of the Order.

I will have the opportunity to visit Unique Unified Encampment in Spokane on March 7. Grand Matriarch Maggie Truttmann will accompany me. We both truly are looking forward to the visit and engaging with our fellow Patriarchs and Matriarchs.

PLANNING BOARD

Additionally in March, we meet in Yakima for the Planning Board Meeting. Before you know it, we'll be into Sessions. I hope to see as many of you in June as possible attending.

I personally enjoy participating and watching the leadership go about doing the business of our Order. So seriously consider attending you too will enjoy as you observe and participate.

Again congratulations. Reminder, if asked I will participate in your April Installations.

May you have a prosperous and harmonious 2023.

VISITATIONS HAVE BEEN FUN

Dear Matriarchs,

On Friday, February 10 I made my official visit to Kent LEA #15 in the Buckley Lodge Hall where we had a lovely potluck lunch.

Past Grand Matriarch Jennie Reed and I traveled around the room and members place hand written notes in my travel bag. They brought a smile to my face as I was reading each one after arriving home.

Thank you for the addendum along with the check for mine and Grand Patriarch Joe Picanco's project which is Visual Aid.

On February 13th I made my visit to Mt. Angeles #88 LEA. We had a lovely lunch and I was presented with a check for my project. Thank you so much.

I will be making my visit to Unique Unified Encampment #32 in Spokane on Tuesday, March 7.

Remember to change you clocks to Daylight Saving Time on Saturday night, March 11, or on Sunday morning, March 12.

AN IRISH BLESSING

Here is an Irish Blessing from an unknown author:

"For each petal on the shamrock, this brings a wish your way: Good health, good luck, and happiness for today and every day."

Beanies for baldies

Yes, these new beanies will keep your head warm if you are bald or not. As you can see, our Grand Secretary Laurel Delony, who is obviously not bald, is taking no chances as winter is not past us yet. These beanies, AKA stocking caps, are the newest headgear available from the Grand Lodge Office in Buckley. The Odd Fellow beanies are $10 each plus postage. Contact Grand Secretary Laurel to order. Our contact info is on page 2.

From your Deputy Grand Master

Brothers and Sisters,

Installation season is over and we are all in our new positions in our lodge halls. The days are getting a little longer and soon we will be able to drive to meetings in the light.

INSTALLATION SEASON VERY EXHILARATING

For me, the installation season was busy and exhilarating. The installation at Ellensburg was quite a sight. The hall has had a lot of work finished since my last time there last October. They had a lot of new members last year, so this was a first for a lot of the members. Their hall is massive and allowed for full floor work, all while Grand Musician Toby Hanson entertained us playing their newly-donated baby grand piano. It was truly a high-light for me.

MICHAEL SCHEURICH
Deputy Grand Master

LOT'S OF HELP AVAILABLE

As you enter your new positions I hope you find it fun and exciting. If you find you need a little guidance, your lodge can certainly be a source of great information. Most lodges have officers and longtime members who are willing to help and offer valuable advice. Your DDGM and Grand Lodge Officers are also available to you. Please do not hesitate if we can help in anyway.

PLEASE CONTRIBUTE TO OUR NEWSPAPER

We are very interested in hearing what your lodge is up to. I encourage Secretaries and members to take some pictures, write a short story and send it to The Washington OddFellow newspaper. Thank you.

‘Love Bugs’ invade Acorn’s lair

CAN SPRING BE FAR AWAY?

Spring is on its way and we are looking forward to warmer weather.

We held our Installation of Officers, but many of our members were sick so had to install them at our next meeting. Our new elective officers are: President Stacy Gardiner, Vice President Shauna Schultz, Secretary Sarah Thomas and Treasurer Leilah McNichols. Girls receiving appointive officers were: Avi Moore, Ava Williams, Autumn Schiederer, Alana Weatherlow, Hailey Hanna, Kiaira Moore, Lucy Crouch, Layla Williams, and Riley Moore.

Riley was presented with her Past President’s Jewel.

After our installation, we worked on our Valentine “Love Bugs.”

EASTER TREATS

This month we will be working on our Easter treat bags as we don’t have a meeting in April before Easter.

We are continuing to collect food for our food bank and will share more on that next month. We are hoping to do an outing this month since the weather is getting nicer. It could possibly be a trip to Fort Casey.

We hope all of you are having a good year. Until next month. . .

Kendra visits So. Tacoma Rebekah Lodge #160

The new officers have taken their chairs and we're off to a good start. At our first meeting on February 7 we were visited by the President of the Rebekah Assembly of Washington, Kendra Frogge`, along with her husband and Rebekah Brother Tom Frogge` from Eola Rebekah Lodge #63 and Past President, Parliamentarian and Grand Treasurer of the LEA Karen Hoylman.

Theta Rho Girls from Spunky Bluebirds #93 came to our meeting and made a special presentation to President Kendra. In addition, our lodge donated money to her project. Before the meeting lodge members provided a potluck dinner. A cake was devoured after the meeting. We all had a great time and our new Noble Grand Jamie-Vest Bey did a great job at his first meeting.

From a Past Grand Master

Random thoughts and observations

For the past several years I have been asked to write Resolutions of Respect for our Past Grand Masters whom have gone on to their final Degree of Odd Fellowship. Some in our Order would consider this to be an onerous chore to do. Myself personally I consider it an honor and a privilege to do this for those who have imparted so much knowledge and wisdom to myself and others who choose to go through the chairs in a Grand Lodge.

THINK ABOUT THE COMMITMENT

If a member of the Grand Lodge decides to stand for election they should give it some serious thought, as you are committing yourself to four years of hard, but enjoyable work and learning. It is not something to be taken lightly. So many who have taken the step have done so for many of what I believe are the wrong reasons, such as just to get the jewel or to be important, i.e., thinking that holding that office is all about them. When in fact at the point of gaining the office of Grand Master you are now the least important person in your Jurisdiction. By that what I mean is the rest of the members in the Jurisdiction are looking to you for leadership; which you must be ready to demonstrate by your action and words while holding that office. You must be able to act fairly and without prejudice when dealing with the problems that will arise while you occupy the office of Grand Master. Your members have placed their trust and hope in you to lead them into making your Jurisdiction better than when you assumed office.

A VERY REWARDING EXPERIENCE

If you do your best to move Odd Fellowship forward you will find it immensely rewarding and at the same time immensely satisfying at the end of your term of office. If you do nothing more than occupy the office you will soon find yourself talked about and looked at in a different manner than when you started through the chairs of your Grand Lodge.

In the Jurisdiction of Washington our Jurisdictional Code tells you what you must do in each of the chairs. As Grand Master I believe there are some additional things you should do, such as attending Degree Days, attending all the various committee meetings for the Grand Lodge, including newspaper, website, etc., and asking what they need as well as staying abreast of any issues they have in performing their duties as a committee. Yes, it takes a lot of your time and yes it is not always easy, and yes some of your personal projects will have to be set aside for a while as you go through the chairs of your Grand Lodge.

SPEAKING FROM EXPERIENCE

I know it can be done from having gone through the chairs completely twice from Warden to Grand Master, while still working for an employer who was not always sympathetic to me taking time off, as well as losing my wife when going through the first time.

Did I enjoy it? Not always when I was doing it, but on reflection it was a great experience and very rewarding. It is something I would recommend to every member of the Grand Lodge to think about trying. First work on a committee, accept a position as an appointed officer and gain a solid working knowledge of your Grand Lodge and how it functions as there are some variations from Jurisdiction to Jurisdiction in the way things are done, if it is within the framework of the Sovereign Grand Lodge Code that is acceptable.

SEEK KNOWLEDGE BEFORE RUNNING

I once had a Grand Master tell me that he was talked into running for office and his thought was that he could use the money given for the office, as he did not have a real good job and his wife was confined to a wheelchair. That Grand Master was never told about all the things he would have to do while going through the chairs.

SOME THOUGHTS ON LODGES

How many times have you been to a lodge that seems to be confused on how to do things? What causes some of that confusion? I believe that in most lodges it is the result of poor training by the older members in training their future replacements. If you have never been to a lodge that is run correctly you would not know if things were being done wrong. I remember my first trip through the chairs of my home lodge, being given my Degrees and then appointed as Inside Guardian, Right Supporter

Ron's ramblings

the Vice Grand and finally I was elected Vice Grand and then Noble Grand. What a shock it was to be told by two of the older members that I could be Noble Grand, but that they would run the lodge.

HEREIN LIES THE PROBLEM

If you can not see the problem in that I will spell it out for you. Too many members or families think that it is their lodge and you will do it my way or you will pay for it. Some members have come into our Order in these types of lodges and left shortly after because of these kinds of actions. Then there are lodges that think as soon as they initiate a new member it is okay to give them a job before they have all their Degrees which causes a lot of confusion for the new member down the road when they are told that is not allowed.

BE WITHIN THE FRAMEWORK

We all run our meeting a little differently, but as long as it is done within the framework of our Ritual and Codes that is allowed. I think it is best if when a lodge gains a new member the person who brought them in should mentor them in the proper way to do things, and if they do not know then ask for help. We all do not know everything about our Order, however we can all learn about our Order by opening our minds and listening to our older members on the way things were done when they joined.

These are just some random thoughts and observation for you all to think about presented by an old Past Grand Master.

 Happy
St. Patrick's
 Day

From your 2022-23 Theta Rho President

HAPPY MARCH!

During my school day I get the chance to walk outside for my classes, usually. But I haven't because of how cold it was. But today was different. It was a lot warmer and sunnier now but, of course, it was a still little chilly. But it had the faint smell of water, similar to when you drive by a car wash during summer or go to a water park. It was a very nice experience because I didn't realize how much I had missed that kind of weather until it returned.

LUCY CROUCH

π

PI DAY 3.14

Some holidays in March are St. Patrick's Day, and National "Pi Day!" I think this year I'm particularly more excited for "Pi Day" because last year my school had teachers volunteer to get a pie in the face if we fund-raised enough. I'm hoping they bring it back this year. But I also have a lot of fond memories of St. Patrick's Day from elementary school.

COMMUNITY SERVICE IDEAS

Some community service ideas for this month are:

- Donate clothes/food to local shelters.
- Volunteer at businesses during holidays.
- Bake pies for those in need.
- Make cards for senior citizens.

AUCTION VOLUNTEER

I'm going to be volunteering a full shift at an auction-dinner soon. Typically, people don't like to volunteer for this kind of stuff, but I'm actually interested. I want to go out and get experience, and what is a better way than to do it while helping my community? The money from the auction event will also go toward one of my school programs. Our Nation Honor Society and Leo's Club are teaming up to help serve the dinner, so I'm pretty excited.

Prosperity IOOF Lodge #301 initiates five new members!!!!

Prosperity IOOF Lodge #301 brought a class of five new members into the Wenatchee Odd Fellows on Saturday, January 28. The five new members included Adam Odell, Terri Odell, Mike England, Matt Hargan and Joel Myrene. Junior Past Grand Master Dave Delony and Grand Secretary Laurel Delony were on hand for this momentous day. Welcome Aboard!!

Trinity Rebekah Lodge #179 has a full schedule

Look out for those sneaky Leprechauns! They know all about Green and Gold and know how to play tricks as well. Happy St. Patrick's Day!

FEBRUARY! WHAT A BUSY MONTH!

We had a Celebration of Life for one of our Past Noble Grands, and past Rebekah member, Roxie Elwood on February 4.

Then we had a small work party on February 5. Thanks to Jeri Mainero, LouAnn Hoffman, Sandy Beane and myself.

Our meeting was on February 9, followed by a Bake Sale on the 10th and Bingo on the 11th.

Hope everyone had a great Valentine's Day!

MARCH DOINGS

March events include a garage sale on March 10 and 11. We are renting out tables. We are serving soup on Friday and hamburgers on Saturday.

We have a date for another Bingo fund-raiser for the L.C. Renal Alliance. It will be on Saturday, March 18. We have a potato bar planned.

On Friday, March 17 we will have a bake sale.

OUR DEEPEST SYMPATHIES TO SCOTT

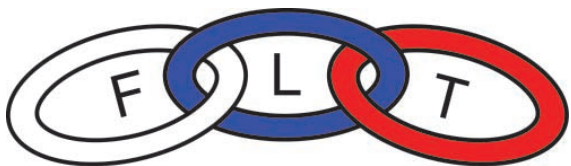

We had a heavy heartfelt call from our Past Noble Grand Scott Anderson. On Sunday, January 29 his dad Norm Anderson passed away.

Once again Trinity stepped up with the help from Sandy Beane, Sherri Guenther, Evelyn Neumann and daughter Trudy, myself and LouAnn Hoffmann. Everyone took dinners to the family for the week and filled in where they didn't already have help in place. It was the least we could do. We take care and help our own family.

We're looking forward to the Northwest Odd Fellow and Rebekah meeting in British Columbia, Canada. This is a new event for me. I can say I will be checking it out!

As your Assembly Warden, I can report that our bake sale and Bingo went well.

Kent Ladies Aux. #15 is growing by leaps & bounds

Members of Kent Ladies Auxiliary #15 meet in the Buckley IOOF Lodge Hall on the second Friday of every month. We have a pot luck luncheon at noon and the meeting starts at 1 p.m.

We recently added four new members. In November we initiated Laurel Delony, and in January we initiated Laurel's mom, Joanne Balmert. At the February meeting we initiated Tom Frogge' and Jamie Vest Bey. Thank you all for joining our Auxiliary.

There is always room for more Matriarchs. If you would like to join but can't meet in the afternoon, Mt. Angeles LEA meets on the second Monday of the month at 7 p.m., also at the Buckley Lodge Hall.

LEA SCHOLARSHIP

The Grand LEA offers a scholarship to relatives of a Washington Matriarch or a relative of a deceased Washington Matriarch who was in good standing at the time of her passing. This scholarship is $1,000 and it can be used for any type of school. The scholarship packet can be obtained by contacting Jennie Reed, P.O. Box 494, McCleary, WA or by email at daveandjennie@hotmail.com or by phone at (360) 495-3573, or cell phone at (360) 470-0422.

Odd Fellows Primer

Now available in Digital eBook and Audiobook versions

The book that revived the long-dormant genre of Odd Fellows instructional manuals, Brother Michael Greenzeiger's The Odd Fellows' Primer, is now available in two digital formats: as an audiobook available for download or streaming and also as an eBook suitable for Kindle and other eReaders.

The Odd Fellows' Primer is a work cut from the same cloth as the great 19th century manuals written by luminaries such as Rev. Aaron Grosh and Paschal Donaldson, designed to give the new initiates everything they need to practice and live Odd Fellowship in the lodge and beyond. This comprehensive work, which explores and explains concepts of fraternalism and parliamentary procedure and the deeper spiritual and ethical facets of this ancient and venerable tradition, is now available in digital formats to ensure maximum availability for current and future Odd Fellows.

Richly and beautifully illustrated by Ainslie Heilich and written by Michael Greenzeiger, The Odd Fellows' Primer is designed to both inform and inspire. With more than 2,000 print copies sold since its release in 2021, The Odd Fellows' Primer has become a valuable resource for newly-chartered lodges beginning their journey in Odd Fellowship as well as established lodges working on increasing their knowledge of ritual and lodge procedure.

The eBook edition of the Primer was adapted from the same files used to produce the print edition so readers who purchase the eBook will experience the fully-illustrated version with artwork by Ainslie Heilich, just like in print editions. The audiobook version was narrated by a voice familiar to listeners of The Three Links Odd Cast, Past Sovereign Grand Musician Toby Hanson. Together, these two new versions of the Primer will allow more Odd Fellows than ever before to easily access the treasure trove of information contained within.

For more information, contact: Michael Greenzeiger at greenzeiger@gmail.com, 1025 E. Cardinal Drive, Sunnyvale, CA 94087, (408) 505-9367.

DDGM and Battalion in Olympia on March 8

The District Deputy Grand Masters' Meeting is set for Saturday, April 8 by order of our Grand Master Tim Moon. The meeting will be held at the Olympia Odd Fellows Hall located at 405 Columbia Street SW in Olympia.
